Business and Cooperative Programs

Intermediary Relending Program (IRP)

What is this Program?

USDA Rural Development supports loans for smaller and emerging businesses, and business facilities in order to promote community economic development in rural areas

Who May Borrow?

- Intermediaries may be private nonprofit corporations, public agencies, American Indian tribes or cooperatives
- Intermediaries must:
 - Have legal authority to carry out the proposed loan purposes and to incur and repay the debt
 - Have a record of successfully assisting rural business and industry, normally including experience in making and servicing commercial loans
- Located in an eligible area of 25,000 or less

How May Funds Be Used?

- All loan funds received by intermediary must be re-loaned to ultimate recipients
- Loans from intermediaries to recipients must be:
 - For the establishment of new businesses
 - Expansion of existing businesses
 - Creation of employment opportunities
 - Saving of existing jobs
 - For community development projects
- Some examples of eligible projects are:
 - The purchase or development of land
 - Pollution control and abatement
 - Transportation Services
 - Feasibility studies
 - Hotels, motels, and convention centers

What are the Loan Limits/ Interest Rate?

- The interest rate on loans to intermediaries is 1% per annum
- The interest rate charged to ultimate recipients is negotiated by the intermediary
- Loan from intermediaries to ultimate recipients using the IRP revolving fund must not exceed $150,000 or 75% of the total cost of the project

What are the Loan Terms?

- Loans to intermediaries are scheduled for repayment over a period of up to 30 years
- The term of loans from intermediaries to ultimate recipients is set by the intermediary
- At least 51% of the owners or members of both intermediaries and ultimate recipients must be United States citizens or admitted for permanent residence
- Both intermediaries and ultimate recipients must be unable to obtain the proposed loan elsewhere at reasonable rates and terms

How Do I Apply?

Applications are accepted year-round for a quarterly competition at the National level. Contact the Rural Development staff listed here for more details.

Business and Cooperative Program

Renewable Energy for America Program (REAP)

Guaranteed Loans & Grants

What is this Program?

USDA Rural Development funds energy efficiency projects (such as bioenergy, geothermal, hydrogen, solar, wind and hydro power) that typically involve installing or upgrading equipment to significantly reduce energy use

Who May Apply?

- Farmers, ranchers and rural small businesses
- Applicant must be the owner of the system and control the operation and maintenance of the proposed project
- A qualified third-party operator may be used to manage the operation and/or for maintenance of the proposed project
- Non-profit organizations and public entities are excluded
- Located in an eligible area of 50,000 or less

How May Funds Be Used?

- Items below must be an integral and necessary part of the total project:
 - Equipment, except agricultural tillage equipment and vehicles
 - Post-application construction or project improvements, except residential
 - Energy audits or assessments
 - Permit fees
 - Professional service fees, except for application preparation
 - Feasibility studies
 - Business plans
 - Retrofitting
- Construction of a new facility only when the facility is used for the same purpose, is approximately the same size, and based on the energy audit will provide more energy savings than improving an existing facility
- Only cost identified in the energy audit for energy efficiency projects are allowed
- Total input from a nonrenewable energy source for necessary and incidental requirements of the energy system will be determined by the technical reviewer

What are the Project Requirements?

- All projects must be based on satisfactory sources of revenues in an amount sufficient to provide for the operation and maintenance of the system or project
- For a grant, project must be for:
 - Purchase of a renewable energy system or to make energy efficiency improvements
 - Pre-commercial or commercially available and replicable technology, not for research and development
 - Technically feasible

How do I Apply?

A Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) is published in the Federal Register. This usually occurs on an annual basis for this program. The NOFA will provide all the necessary details for applying including:

- Information applicants must submit
- The criteria Rural Development will use to evaluate and rank applications
- Deadlines for applying
- Address to send in completed applications

What is this Program?

USDA Rural Development supports rural projects that finance and facilitate development of small and emerging rural businesses and help fund employment related adult education programs. RBEGs may fund a broad array of activities such as revolving loan funds, technical assistance, and construction

Who May Apply?

- Public bodies, private non-profit corporations and federally-recognized American Indian Tribes may apply for the grant to assist a business. GRANT FUNDS DO NOT GO DIRECTLY TO THE BUSINESS.
- City or town that has a population of less than 50,000 according to the latest decennial census.
- At least 51% of the outstanding interest in any project must have membership or be owned by U.S. citizens or resident aliens

How Can Funds Be Used?

- Technical Assistance for small business enterprises such as market research, product or service improvement or completing a feasibility study
- Capital expenditures to assist in the development of small businesses
- Relending loan programs which provide financial assistance to small businesses

What Uses are Prohibited?

- Promotion of an area to attract businesses
- Funding comprehensive area-wide type planning
- Financing agriculture production

How Much are the Grants?

- There is no maximum
- Smaller projects are given higher priority
- Generally grants range from $10,000 to $500,000

Who Must the Grant Assist?

- The grant must assist specifically identifiable small and emerging private business enterprises
- Emerging private business enterprises defined as: "Generally any private business which will employ 50 or fewer new employees; has less than $1 million in projected gross revenues; has, or will utilize technological innovations and commercialization of new projects than can be produced or manufactured in rural areas; and new processes than can be used in such production."

What are Program Priorities?

- Communities with less than 25,000 population
- Communities where the unemployment rate exceeds the state unemployment rate by 25% or more
- Communities where the median household income (MHI) is less than the State MHI
- Applicant has substantial experience in administering rural economic development where nonfederal funds are being utilized
- Projects that will create and/or save one or more jobs for every $25,000
- Written evidence that small business development will occur as a result of the grant because funding limitations projects are usually less than $100,000

What is this Program?

USDA Rural Development repairs and rehabilitates modest homes to safe and sanitary conditions for very low-income homeowners

Who May Apply?

- Very low-income homeowners below 50% of the area median income can receive up to $20,000 in loan and grants
- To receive a grant, the homeowner must be 62 years or older and unable to pay for any repairs on the house
- To receive a combination loan and grant, an applicant must be 62 years or older and able to pay for only a part of the repairs
- Located in an eligible area (generally less than 25,000 in population and not part of an urbanized area)
- To locate eligible rural areas in California visit: <http://eligibility.sc.egov.usda.gov>

How May Funds Be Used?

- Assist people who may not need a new house or cannot afford a new house, but need some repairs completed on their present house to bring it up to minimum standards
- Remove health or safety hazards from dwellings
- Grants are limited to $7,500 per applicant per lifetime for those 62 or older
- The interest rate on the 504 loan is 1% with up to 20 years in which to repay

What is the Income Criteria?

- An applicant's income determines the type of assistance for which he/she is eligible
- If income is so low as to permit only removal of health and safety hazards, a repair loan and/or grant may be available
- For homeowners with somewhat higher incomes, a home improvement loan may be possible to bring the house up to minimum standards

What are the Security Requirements?

- A real estate Deed of Trust (mortgage) is required for loans of more than $7,500, and in some instances may be required for smaller loans
- If the loans are under $2,500, but income is small so that repaying the loan will be difficult, someone may co-sign the loan note with the borrower
- Homeowners who receive a grant or a combination loan and grant must agree to repay the grant if the property is sold within 3 years

How Do I Apply?

Applications are accepted year-round. Contact your local Rural Development office using the list to the right.

What is this Program?

USDA Rural Development partners with housing groups to help very low- and low-income households work in groups of 6-10 and build their own homes through the self-help process

What is the Self-Help Building Process?

- Plans for modest but adequate housing will be selected and specifications developed
- Construction will involve as much on-site work as practicable
- Basic plans and construction methods will be standardized as much as possible
- Materials may be purchased on a group basis
- Group will decide how members will share labor, how records will be kept of time worked and how labor will be exchanged on a basis fair to all members
- Depending on skills of participants, groups may decide to do all the construction, or contract for work that cannot be done easily, such as excavating, installation of wiring or plumbing and dry wall finishing
- Construction will start only after each family loan has been closed
- Construction of homes will be done in stages. Each stage of construction will be finished, if practical, on all homes before starting the next stage
- The construction supervisor, with advice of the group's president, will divide the group into teams on the basis of skills, compatibility and availability
- Construction changes cannot be made without prior approval of the USDA Rural Development coordinator
- Households will move into the new homes only after construction of all homes have been completed

Who May Apply?

- Public bodies and public or private nonprofit corporation with the legal, administrative and technical capacity to carry out the objectives of the program
- Applicant organization must show a need clearly exists and that qualified personnel can be hired to carry out the objectives of a technical assistance program
- Funds are not available from other sources
- Nonprofit corporations applying must also have either:
 - Successful experience in the field of self help housing
 - A sponsoring organization with this experience or with proven ability in related business fields

What Uses are Prohibited?

- Hiring personnel to perform actual construction work for households
- Buying real estate, building materials or other property for participants

How Do I Apply?

What is this Program?

USDA Rural Development offers direct loans for the development of affordable rental housing that serves rural areas

Who May Borrow?

Individuals, corporations, associations, partnerships, limited partnerships, trusts, public or private organizations, consumer cooperatives and federally recognized American Indian tribes

- Applicants must be unable to obtain similar credit elsewhere at rates that would allow for rents within the payment ability of eligible residents
- Applicants must have the legal and financial ability to carry out the obligations required for the loan
- Applicants must be able to maintain, manage, and operate the project for its intended purpose and in accordance with Rural Development's program

Who May Live in this Housing?

- Very-low to moderate income families
 - Very low income = 50% of the area median income (AMI) or lower
 - Low income = 50-80% of AMI
 - Moderate income = Capped at $5,500 above the low-income limit
- Elderly and persons with disabilities

How May Funds Be Used?

- Construct rental housing
- Purchase and rehabilitate buildings, not previously financed by Rural Development
- Subsequent loans
- Purchase and improve sites
- Develop and install necessary systems
- Landscaping and site development
- Tenant-related facilities

What Uses are Prohibited?

- Housing for temporary and transient residents
- Special care facilities or institutional-type homes
- Facilities which are not in compliance with Rural Development's design requirements

How Do I Apply?

For New Loans

- A Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) is published in the Federal Register. This usually occurs on an annual basis for this program. The NOFA will provide all the necessary details for applying including:
 - Information applicants must submit
 - The criteria Rural Development will use to evaluate and rank applications
 - Deadlines for applying
 - Address to send in completed Applications
 - Administrative loan limit and availability of new construction rental assistance

- A list of designated eligible rural locations may be obtained from USDA Rural Development

For Subsequent Loans

Please contact the state MFH Coordinator directly for more information

What is this Program?

USDA Rural Development provides low cost financing for the development of affordable year-around and migrant/seasonal rental housing for “domestic farm laborers”, regardless of the farm where they work

*A specific allocation of Sec. 514 loan funds for on-farm labor housing are available each year and are funded on a first-come, first-served basis. Loans are provided to farm owners and associations of farmers to provide housing to the farm laborers they employ. Housing may be constructed in urban or rural areas, on or off the farm, so long as the applicant can justify the need. For more information on the Section 514 On-Farm Loan Program, please contact the State MFH Coordinator directly.

Who May Apply?

- Nonprofit corporations, including cooperatives, public bodies, housing authorities, federally recognized tribes, and limited partnerships with a nonprofit general partner
- Applicant must have sufficient qualifications and experience to develop and operate project; and have a good credit history (no delinquent Federal debt & no Federal housing violations)
- Individuals are not eligible

Who May Live in this Housing?

- Limited to very low, low, or moderate income household, must be a US citizen or permanent resident and earn at least $3,835 per year
- Domestic farm laborers include retired, elderly, and/or disabled

How May Funds Be Used?

- Project may be constructed in an urban or rural area (providing there is a demonstrated need)
- Purchase and rehabilitate buildings, not previously financed by Rural Development
- Subsequent loans/grants
- Develop and install necessary systems
- Landscaping and site development
- Tenant-related facilities

Who May Apply?

- Public or private nonprofit organization, public agency or body of any State government or commonwealth or federally recognized American Indian tribe
- Grantee must have the necessary background and experience on the part of its staff with proven ability to perform the responsibility in the field of low-income rural housing development, repair and rehabilitation
- Grantees are required to make quarterly progress reports and a final audit on their accomplishments

How May Funds Be Used?

- Grants are used by the organization to assist low and very-low income homeowners with grants or low interest loans to repair or rehabilitate homes that do not meet decent, safe, sanitary and handicapped accessibility standards. Including but not limited to:
 - Installation/repair of sanitary water and waste disposal systems
 - Repair/replace heating systems
 - Electrical wiring; foundation repair; roof repair and replacement; insulation
 - Handicap Accessibility features
 - Additions to dwellings to alleviate overcrowding
- Grants may be used for labor and materials for the needed repairs; and up to 20% of the funds may be used for administrative expenses

How are Funds Distributed?

- USDA awards grants to sponsoring organizations (not individual homeowners) and the organization works with and provides support to individual homeowners
- Individual homeowners assisted must:
 - Meet low or very low income definitions
 - Own the individual dwelling at least one year prior to the time of assistance
 - Be the intended occupant of the dwelling after repairs are completed
- The dwelling must be located in a rural area or community and be in need of housing preservation assistance
- Each homeowner is required to submit evidence of income and ownership for the grantee's files
- Assistance is also available to rental property owners to repair & rehabilitate units providing they agree to make such units available to low & very-low income persons
- Grants are combined with other programs/leveraged funds and distributed as loans, grants, or subsidies to individual homeowners based on a plan listed in the grant application
- Funds must be used within a two-year period
